Serbian-French Attack—Many Prisoners Are Added to Number Already Reported—Towns Captured

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Sept. 21.—The British attack against the Hindenburg line northwest of St. Quentin was resumed this morning east of Epehy says the official report from Field Marshal Haig today.

NEW DRIVE IS ALONG THREE-MILE LINE

With the British forces in France, Sept. 21.—English troops attacked the German lines midway between Havincourt wood and St. Quentin at half past five o'clock this morning on a front of from 2 1/2 to 3 miles.

SERBS EXTEND MACEDONIAN OFFENSIVE

(Compiled From Associated Press Dispatches.)
Driving northward on an everwidening front the Serbian and French forces in central Macedonia now menace the entire Bulgarian position from the Adriatic to Saloniki. The cutting of the Uskub-Saloniki railway which is only nine miles from the new Serbian line, would upset completely the Bulgarian defenses.

Serbian infantry is moving rapidly toward the highway from Prilep to the Vardar river and eight miles southward parallel the road on a front of more than 15 miles. At Drogolet, north of which the cavalry are operating the Serbs have advanced 20 miles from the Sokol positions the capture of which precipitated the Bulgarian retirement.

The formidable salient driven into the Bulgarian line is being extended rapidly as the terrain becomes more favorable. Additional villages have been liberated. A large number of prisoners has been added to the 5,000 already reported.

Apparently the Bulgarian resistance is not very great and there is indication of where the enemy intends to make a stand. The Serbs are approaching the Vardar river and the main railway south from Uskub. Should they succeed in reaching the canal in the position of the Bulgarians to the south around Lake Doiran would be precarious. The British and Greeks continue their pressure around the Lake and the enemy there must depend entirely on the Uskub railway for supplies and reinforcements. Successful continuation of the allied strike is fraught with great possibilities.

In France the British and French continue with success their operations looking toward the encircling of St. Quentin and the breaking of the Hindenburg line between St. Quentin and Cambrai.

On a front of three miles the British today are smashing into the German main defenses west of Le Catelet with the object of getting east of the section of the Scheldt canal between St. Quentin and Cambrai. The canal is less than two miles from the British lines.

HOUSE PASSES REVENUE BILL

Measure Is Greatly Changed, and Will Go to the Senate for Consideration.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Sept. 21.—The passage in the house yesterday of the nation's greatest revenue bill by unanimous vote was accepted today by official Washington as another message to the enemy that the war will be prosecuted to a triumphant end, regardless of cost or burden. In almost the identical form in which it was presented by the ways and means committee, the bill was put through without serious attempts by the minority to change the important schedules.

Many opinions have been expressed by members as to what the senate might do in revising the bill, but the general view is that it will be passed with few important changes. How soon the senate will act is not so certain, and some doubt is expressed as to whether the bill will reach the president before the November election.

Chairman Lever of the agriculture committee announced that he would call up next the emergency food production measure, containing the senate amendment for national war time rationing, effective July 1, 1919. As members have planned to leave Washington today, Mr. Lever offered to take up the prohibition measure last night, but there was no objection.

GENERAL MARCH REPORTS 1,750,000 MEN EMBARKED

News From All Fronts In Past Week, Chief of Staff Announces

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Sept. 21.—Embarkation of American soldiers for all fronts overseas now has passed the 1,750,000 mark, General March announced today. He said military news during the past week from all fronts has been continuously good.

On the Lorraine front where General Peshing's First American army has completed its operation to eliminate the St. Mihiel salient, the situation has become stabilized, with the enemy hurriedly perfecting a new line in front of the Americans. The line stretches for twenty miles from Malzeray to the Moselle at Vandieres. The Americans no more than ten miles from Metz and an equal distance from Conflans.

General March read a cablegram citing a general order issued by Major General H. L. Reed, commanding the 15th Scottish Division, British army, praising the First American division (regulars) for work done in the 15th Scottish Division. The order said the 15th had never received such perfect assistance in "taking over" operations, although it was realized that the American division at that time have been under severe strain and had suffered severe casualties.

Answering questions regarding specific American units, General March said the 90th Division, (Texas and Oklahoma National Guard) is in the Vosges, while the 36th (Texas and Oklahoma National Guard) troops is in a training sector with the French. No commander has yet been selected for the 13th regular division, which still is in this country training at Camp Travis, Texas. The 14th engineers, of the 39th division (Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana National Guard "troops"), has just landed in France.

The Scottish division, it appeared, was relieving the First American division on an active front. General Reed's order said the situation arose and that the volunteers of the commander of the American artillery brigade, in remaining to join in establishing the British units and in giving up the well earned relief for himself and his men, had relieved the situation. The order specifically thanked Brigadier General L. R. Holbrook, the American artillery commander, and Colonel Mabie, the medical officer. It had no mention of the American ambulance units. General Reed said, at least 400 British wounded would still be on his hands in this sector.

In Picardy, the chief of staff explained, the French are now within one half mile of the junction of the Chemin des Dames with the road from Maubeuge and are within ten miles of Laon, which is being shelled. North of there British and French armies with the French first army, as a result of renewed attacks on the St. Quentin front, and in spite of strong opposition by the Germans, made important progress. The capture of 10,000 prisoners since Wednesday by the British as reported in press dispatches, was officially confirmed.

In Macedonia, General March said, the Serbian attack on a front of 25 miles has forced back the Bulgarians nearly 20 miles over a very difficult and mountainous region.

OHIO STILL LEADS IN WAR STAMP SALES

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Sept. 21.—Enough war savings and thrift stamps were sold last month—$1.04 for every person in the United States, to raise the average per capita holdings of these "baby bonds" to $6.48. The treasury today reported August sales as $103,533,000 and total sales to September 1 to $652,061,000.

Ohio led all states in August both in total sales of $273,000, and in per capita sales of $2.16. Ohio also was second in the new York in aggregate sales since the beginning of the campaign. Next to Ohio for the month of August, New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Missouri reported the biggest receipts. Nevada, New Hampshire, South Dakota and Oregon followed Ohio in per capita distribution.

Heavy losses were inflicted on the Bolshevik forces by the entente allies.

HAIG'S TROOPS AGAIN ATTACK HINDENBURG LINE; ST. QUENTIN IS HIS OBJECTIVE

Continuing the effort of the allies to envelop St. Quentin, General Haig Saturday morning launched a new assault in the region of Epehy just west of the Hindenburg line shown by the black dotted line. Epehy is located directly west of Le Catelet and about five miles from the latter city. It is in this region that the Hindenburg first line defenses have been broken by French and British troops. The French units are operating south of St. Quentin in a region not shown on this map.

U. S. FINANCIAL HISTORY SHOWS LIBERTY BONDS SAFE INVESTMENT

Whole Wealth of Country is Behind Loans For War Purposes—Previous Issues Have Sold Far Above Par—Campaign Opens Sept. 30.

The credit of the United States was so high and unquestionable that in 1900, two years after the Spanish war, two per cent bonds were offered at par and oversubscribed. This is a financial performance no other nation has ever equaled.

United States 4 per cent bonds in 1888 sold as high as 130 and in 1901 brought 139 on the stock market. The United States has never defaulted on any of its bonds. Not one of the bondholders has ever lost a cent of principal or interest except those who voluntarily have taken losses by selling their bonds in a period of temporary price depression. One hundred per cent on the dollar, principal and interest, has the United States always paid.

Back of the $250,000,000,000 of $300,000,000 of our national resources stands the rugged honesty of America. Liberty Loan bonds are the safest security in the world, and once again you have the opportunity of buying what so many of them as you want or feel you can afford.

Monday, September 30, ushers in Liberty Bond week. From Monday to Friday an intensive bond selling campaign will be conducted by the Licking County War Work organization. This organization has a record that it might well feel proud of and it is a safe prediction to make that it will come out of the Liberty Loan campaign just as successful as were the three previous Liberty Loans and the War Chest and War Savings campaigns.

The slogan of the Fourth Liberty Loan is, "Lend us Thy Fight—To the Victory." and if every citizen of Newark and Licking county lives up to this, Old Licking will more than subscribe its quota.

The committee of arrangements for the big parade heralding the opening of the fourth Liberty bond sale, met Friday afternoon and mapped out some of the work for the different committees appointed by Chairman H. F. Darrough. The committee realizes that there is some hard work ahead of it if it makes this a success.

The committee has planned to have a large platform erected in one of the corners of the public square where the United States Naval band of 51 pieces will give its concert and where the parade will be held.

DAYTON AVIATOR LANDS NEAR CITY

An aviator from the Dayton field flew over the city at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon making a landing at the Moundbuilders' Country Club. Aviator Ernst accompanied by another flyer made the trip to Newark.

The mission of the aviator to Newark is not known here. At the country club it was stated that the flight was made in connection with the campaign for the industrial fund being sought here but this is denied by members of the industrial committee.

The monthly 226 an effort was made to interest the government in the country club tract as a site for an aviation training camp but no information could be secured this afternoon leading to the belief that the visit of the aviator was in connection with this effort. Officials of the country club could not be reached.

That the visit was not unheralded is indicated by the fact that a large number of people were at the club.

Lines Now Rest Practically Where Great Offensive Began

Masterful Strategy of Marshal Foch Defeats Kaiser's Best Military Experts and Allies Cause Is Now In the Ascendancy

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)
Six months ago today the great German offensive began. For weeks victory seemed about to perch on the German banners. Today the allied states in the ascendancy.

Anxiety and encouragement, depression and joy, have succeeded each other since at dawn on March 21 the greatest battle of history began. It has been a period of almost incessant fighting and of being changes in the situations that developed from day to day and from week to week.

The allies knew it faced Germany's mightiest effort last March, but it stood unafraid. Released by the absolute collapse of Russia as a belligerent power, vast numbers of German veterans had been rushed to the western front and been given intensive training for the offensive by which the Teutonic war lords dreamed that they might force upon the world a German peace. It was known that great bodies of men and tremendous stores of munitions had been concentrated at strategic points behind the German lines. It was even known where the Germans would launch their first attack and for weeks before March 21 the eyes of the allies had been fixed on the long curving line from La Fere to Arras as the stage where the first act of the great drama would be enacted.

Moving with a swiftness that carried concern to every entente nation, the German forces swept over the British lines in Picardy and rolled westward like a tidal wave during the closing days of March, until at last the British reached positions where they could stand at bay and the French had come to form a living wall before the gray clad host of the German emperor. Then the offensive stopped.

Hardly had its rush been checked than the line between Lens and Ypres was attacked by the Germans and again the British lines swayed backward. The advance of the enemy went on until it reached the high ground to the southwest of Ypres and then it too was stopped by the stubborn fighting of the allied armies.

Then the offensive followed for nearly a month and then, on May 27 the Germans suddenly broke through the French lines north of the Aisne river and smashed their way southward until they reached the Marne over a wide front east of Chateau-Thierry.

No sooner had the momentum of this drive been taken up by the yielding defense of the French troops than a new assault was made by the Germans, who this time tried to break the French lines between Montdidier and Noyon and link up the Picardy and Marne sectors.

From first to last the world had been first intimation that the allied armies, which since late in March had been under the supreme command of Marshal Foch, had been preserving a definite policy and had conserved their strength against the time when it might be used with good effect. The German attack east of Montdidier came to a pause after six days of terrible fighting in which the Germans suffered frightfully in losses and the French, for the first time since the German offensive began, struck back at the invaders.

American forces had taken part in the final phases of the battle along the Marne and had been instrumental in stopping the Germans at Chateau-Thierry. In this battle came the first notable contribution of American to the military fortunes of the allies. Since March, however, there had been a flood tide of khaki-clad men crossing the Atlantic and during May, June and the first part of July they rapidly moved up to the battle zone east of the Marne.

The sanguinary check of the German offensive east of Montdidier gave the allies hope that the German tide would be safely stemmed, and this feeling was heightened during the successful actions along the front from Soissons to Chateau-Thierry by which the Germans were driven back steadily from points of tactical value. What was not known by the lay world was the fact that, by these very actions, Marshal Foch virtually forced the Germans to attack somewhere in the Marne region, where preparations were made for a new phase of the struggle.

On July 15, the Germans made a new drive called by them the "offensive of peace," from Chateau-Thierry eastward far into the Champagne sector. No sooner had the news of the attack reached the world than the tidings came that the French, Italian and American lines subjected to assault were standing firmly in every vital part of the front and that it was only by the greatest effort that the Germans

GERMAN PARTIES PLAN GOVERNMENT TO BE INDEPENDENT OF HEADQUARTERS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Amsterdam, Sept. 21.—The government crisis in Germany is approaching a decisive stage, according to Liepzig Tageblatt, and a majority of the parties are firmly resolved to form a parliamentary government without delay. A government, which in entire independence of main headquarters, will pursue a policy made necessary by the seriousness of the situation.

The socialists have declared their readiness to enter the new government under the following conditions: First, the abolition of certain paragraphs in the constitution; second, the ending of at least two or three social democratic in the government; and third, the occupation of one important political post, presumably the ministry of the interior, by a socialist, for which Friedrich Ebert, president of the national committee of the reichstag and vice president of the social democratic party is the foremost candidate.

GERMAN GRAVE STONES OFFENSIVE TO FRANCE

Eulogistic Inscriptions on Marble and

(Associated Press Telegram)
With the American Army on the Lorraine front, Friday, Sept. 20.—Speculation is rife in the American army as to what will be the disposition of the German grave yard found just northeast of St. Mihiel on the Vigneulles road and which, though eloquent testimony to German regard and honor of their dead, should be considered offensive to the French.

The chief reason for this is that all the German graves have been surrounded by elaborate marble or granite headstones, bearing prominently the iron cross and other inscriptions concerning the heroic deaths of the invaders. There are some thirty graves in all, and each of them has over it a large stone, except six which have wooden crosses.

II PLANTS HERE HAVE WAR ORDERS

Manufacturers Deny Report that Industries Here are in "Non-Essential" Class

Reports that Newark industries are not in the "essential" class have caused a menace to the labor supply in Newark, according to a statement issued Saturday by a committee of Newark manufacturers, following a meeting held Friday night to consider the labor situation here.

According to the statement, eleven manufacturers in the city are now working on a government contract and other plants are negotiating for orders for war materials.

The statement says: In as much as the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Newark, Ohio, has inadvertently caused to be published in the daily papers of this city certain articles, the effect of which is to spread abroad the impression that Newark has no essential industries, which does both Newark and the Newark manufacturers a great injustice for the reason that most of the Newark manufacturers are either manufacturing war goods or essentials, among which are the Rugg hatter company, Burke-Goff company, American motor company, Jewett car company, Rugg eye rolling mill company, Holophane glass company, Simpson foundry company, A. H. Heisey & company, Newark Shifting and foundry company, Stryon-Beggs company and The Wehrle company.

Other Newark manufacturers are equipping their factories and getting ready to manufacture war goods and are making every effort to secure war contracts. Some of the Newark manufacturers have expended large sums of money in equipping their factories for the sole purpose of manufacturing war goods.

The above card is published for the purpose of correcting the wrong impression that has gone out and placing the real facts squarely before the public.

(Continued From Page 1) speaker will address the public. On the band brings a speaker. His talk will not be a lengthy one as with the people need to hear the "Jackies" play.

The band will arrive, according to the present schedule, early Sunday morning and leave early Monday morning. Of course this schedule may be changed at the last moment. It is going to tax the committee's utmost efforts to provide the necessary entertainment while the boys are here, and still maintain the high standard already set for the community.

The "Jackies" said in a letter to Chairman W. C. Metz of the Licking County Liberty Loan committee, that Newark provided the best meal of any of the cities they visited in their tour for the Third Liberty Loan campaign, and that Newark had the most beautiful young ladies to entertain them on their last visit. That was some compliment to this community.

It will greatly facilitate matters of the lodges, societies and labor organizations will call Chairman Dargatzis at phone 1303 and let him know as soon as possible that they intend participating in the big parade. It will enable the committee to assign their places and help get matters in shape for Sunday, Sept. 29. The exact hour when the Jackie band arrives and when the concert will be given will be announced later.

GIVE LOAN PENNANTS TO INDUSTRIAL PLANTS

Washington, Sept. 21.—Industrial honor pennants, a new development in Liberty Loan campaigning, will be awarded to all establishments which show that 75 per cent. of their employees have subscribed to the Fourth Liberty Loan.

This recognition of patriotism, it was announced today, will not interfere with the plan heretofore of awarding honor flags to all communities exceeding their quotas. The competition in each federal reserve district will be conducted under the rules prescribed by the Liberty Loan executive committee of the district.

The National Loan Organization counts strongly on the plans for awarding honor pennants to individual business establishments or other organiza-

NAVY OFFICER LISTS GIRLS FOR CLERKSHIPS

Will Be Examined and Enlisted Next Week—Will Work at Naval Station

John W. Parlin, chief petty officer, for the U. S. Navy, was in the city yesterday interesting young women of the town to join as yeomenettes. These are land positions, either at ship yards or recruiting stations as clerks, typists and stenographers.

There was a demand for store keepers, but the enlistment in that branch is closed as the required number has been secured. The latest pay a woman draws after entering the service is $92.50 a month.

Parlin will be in the city next week to further enlist the women who will be sent to Parkersburg for the final examination. A number of young women registered yesterday and the final signing up will take place next week. The exact time of Parlin's visit to the city will be announced later.

SCHIMMEL WINS BARS IN FRENCH SCHOOL

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schimmel of Hudson avenue, received word yesterday from France, stating that their son Elmer F. Schimmel had been graduated from the French officers' artillery school at Saumur, France, with the rank of lieutenant. Schimmel was one of the first Newark boys to go overseas. He enlisted in September 1917 at Columbus. In the artillery, from there he was sent to Camp Robinson, Wis., where he was assigned to the headquarters company signal corps, 17th field artillery, with the rank of corporal. He was in camp only a short time when he was sent to France, arriving there in December 1917. He served three months on the Toul front, as a part of the second division.

While there he was chosen by his comrades as the one man from his regiment to attend the French school. He was in school three months. Lieutenant Schimmel is a graduate of Newark high school, class of 1913 and of Ohio Western University, class of 1917.

AUSTRIAN DENIES HE IS DISLOYAL TO U. S.

B. & O. Employee Hauled Up by Shop Committee Promises to Change Line of Talk

The shop committee at the B. & O., whose duty it is to report any persons or disloyal action or remarks, filed complaint against John Schlanhofer, an Austrian, employed at the shops. It was stated that Schlanhofer defended Germany, and in arguments against her action. Schlanhofer was brought before Sheriff Swank this morning, who delivered a terse, but stinging rebuke, and Schlanhofer promised to change his point of argument. The B. & O. with the sheriff is making an effort to keep an account of any one suspected of disloyalty.

ALLIED FORCES IN THE BALKANS HAVE MOUNTAINOUS ROAD; PURPOSE OF DRIVE IS TO KEEP THE BULGARIANS AT HOME

Arrows indicate points of allied attack.

The territory over which the allied forces in the Balkans are advancing is extremely mountainous and very easy to defend. The fact that the Bulgars are falling back and have asked Germany for help indicates a low state of morale. It is believed that the primary purpose of the Balkan drive is to prevent the Bulgarian government from sending troops to aid the Germans.

Cradle Songs Ancient.

Almost all popular cradle songs are very old, some of them so old that were they not familiar, they might be considered the various curiosities of literature. Through all the changes of the language they have held their own upon the lips and in the hearts of the people. From month to month they have come down through the years with an irrepressible swing of rhythm and patter and jingle of words till they seem to have been rather a human invention. In all the melodies there is a certain likeness of rhythm with a national, might say a temperamental, difference of movement and of meter from the slow assured major of the German to the wild, plaintive minor of the Scotch, characterized by the short, accented notes or the sweetness of the Hungarian with its sudden changes, says a writer in Kansas City Journal.

Enthusiastic Book Collector.

Eight houses full of books was the final collection of the world's greatest book collector when he passed away. He was Richard Heber, half-brother of Helen Reginald Heber, known to millions as the author of the hymn, "From Greenland's Icy Mountains." Richard Heber was insatiable in gathering books, and when he passed away he left not only the eight houses full of books, but smaller collections in other places. No record of the exact number of volumes in his library exists, but one authority declares that "no collector so vast as his has since been gathered by any individual amateur." It has been estimated at 110,000 volumes. Harper's Magazine.

NEW BREED OF "COOTIES" INTERESTS NEWARK BOY

They Are "Nice Little Red Ones" and Know How to Fly, Declares Harry Matthews.

Soldiers always try to look at the light side and treat the amusing visitation of "cooties" as a joke. In a letter received here from Piper Harry Matthews of the Canadian Highlanders, written July 29th, he says:

"I'm expecting to get a 14-day leave of absence to Scotland soon. We are entitled to one every nine months and I've been out here 14 months now, so I'm overdue."

"The weather sure is warm and I am as hot as a pet coon—oh—what! The warm weather seems to help the 'cooties' a lot. Have discovered that I have acquired a new hand—nice little red ones and believe me they sure bite some! Would you like me to send you one in a letter for a souvenir—No? ### Ancient Egyptians Played Ball.

Egypt is the birthplace of the ball game. How it was played history does not record. Recent excavations made near Cairo have brought to light a number of small balls, some of leather and others of wood, dating back to at least 2,000 B. C. These are the oldest balls of this sort known.

Enter—The Fourth Liberty Loan

TODAY Uncle Sam appears before the people of Newark and Licking County asking their support for the Fourth Liberty Loan.

ITS three predecessors have all done their work and each one bears its diploma of SUCCESS.

THE FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN should appeal to us for exactly the same purpose as the other three. It is up to every one of us—the people of Newark and Licking county—to decide whether at the end of this campaign the FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN will take its place with the three others, bearing the magic word SUCCESS, or whether it will have to hang its head in shame, somewhere in obscurity, with FAILURE written all over it.

WHICH IS IT TO BE—SUCCESS OR FAILURE?

TODAY you can give your first answer. TODAY you can begin to plan to buy all the FOURTH LIBERTY BONDS you possibly can afford, and do your share in spelling out the word SUCCESS for the Fourth Liberty Loan.

Don't wait, don't delay until later. Make up your mind today that you are going to help Licking county step up "over the top" by buying bonds the way the boys in France fight—to the very utmost.

Remember the eyes of Uncle Sam and of the world are upon us, and remember, too, that watching us also are the evil eyes of the Hun, who gloats over his past crimes and hopes to see failure appear, so that he can go on with his horrible work unchecked.

THE CAMPAIGN BEGINS MONDAY SEPTEMBER 30TH

AND WILL BE CONDUCTED BY THE LICKING COUNTY WAR WORK ORGANIZATION OF 500 MEN

It will only last a week, but a thorough canvass of the entire county will be made. Every man and woman will be asked to buy bonds, for what chance has 5 per cent against 100 per cent?

What chance has America to win this war if only a small percentage of her people are taking an active part in it, when we know that in Germany every man, woman and child is living, thinking and working for nothing but the war?

Every American must become a part of this war and do something definite if we are to win it. The German people have no illusions and every one of them is in the war to a finish. Are you doing YOUR share as an American?

To do your share is to buy all the LIBERTY BONDS you possibly can. Remember the week of September 30th, and be ready when the solicitor calls to see you.

THE LICKING COUNTY LIBERTY LOAN COMMITTEE

CAPT. MONTGOMERY GIVEN PROMOTION

Is Made Major and Detailed to Classification Camp—Has Traveled Much in France.

Captain Charles W. Montgomery, who left Camp Sherman with the 83rd division, is now Major Montgomery. In a letter received yesterday by Mrs. Montgomery from her husband he told of his new rank.

Major Montgomery was commissioned captain at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, and was assigned to an infantry company.

MAJ. CHARLES W. MONTGOMERY.

At Camp Sherman, he did considerable work while filling speaking engagements for Major General Glenn. He went across with the 83rd and as major is now troop commander in a classification camp.

Major Montgomery has just completed a trip through several cities of France, on a military mission. The letter received by Mrs. Montgomery yesterday was written September 5.

of prices in the stock market, these reaching 1 to 3 points in a variety of stocks, railroads excepted. Confidence was expressed that the speculative position had been remedied to an extent that militated against further liquidation, and more account was taken of favorable factors. These included satisfactory trade conditions, more abundant supplies of money, excellent prospects for the new Liberty Loan and continued allied success. The closing was strong. Sales approximated 175,000 shares.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.
Chicago, Sept. 21.—Corn dropped in value today to the lowest levels yet since trading in the present deliveries began. Opening prices, which ranged from 1/2 to 1/2c lower, with October 1.50 to 1.51, and Nov. 1.47 1/2 to 1.47 1/2, were followed by material further declines.

Oats displayed comparative strength. The reason was continued demand from the government and from export interests. After opening unchanged to 1/2c off with October 73 1/2 to 73 1/2c the market scored slight gains.

Lower quotations on hogs weakened provisions. Trade lacked volume.

Cleveland Poultry and Produce.
Cleveland, Sept. 21.—Butter: creamery, in tubs, 35 1/2c; fancy dairy, 33 1/2c; packing stock, 35 1/2c.
Poultry: hens, 30 1/2c; spring chickens, 30 1/2c.
Potatoes: 3.00 1/2 to 3.25 per hundred pounds in sacks.
Sweet potatoes: 2.00 1/2 to 2.25 a hamper; do, 6 1/2 a barrel.

Cincinnati Live Stock.
Cincinnati, Sept. 21.—Hogs: receipts 2,700; Packers and butchers, 19.75; 13.90; pigs and lights, 13.00 to 19.25.
Cattle: receipts 500; slow.
Calves: slow.
Sheep: receipts 400; steady. Lambs, slow.

Pittsburgh Live Stock.
Pittsburgh, Sept. 21.—Hogs: receipts 2,000; lower. Hens: 20.00 to 20.25; heavy Yorkers, 20.25 to 20.50; light Yorkers and pigs, 20.00 to 20.25.
Sheep and lambs: receipts 500; market strong. Top sheep, 15.00; top lamb, 14.50.

East Buffalo Live Stock.
East Buffalo, Sept. 21.—Cattle: receipts 300; slow.
Calves: receipts 200; market steady. Top 15.00.
Hogs: mixed and Yorkers, 20.15 to 20.25; heavy Yorkers, 19.75 to 20.00; pigs, 19.25; roughs, 17.50 to 17.75; stags, 12.00 to 14.50.
Sheep and lambs: receipts 1,300; active. Lambs, 16.00 to 19.00; others unchanged.

Wall Street.
New York, Sept. 21.—Finding that the recent higher prices of prices was not bringing out an increased supply of stocks, bulls were encouraged to buy more generally at the opening of the day. Stock market with resultant rise of one-half point during the first hour. Bears apparently impressed by the broader character of the demand showed a more general disposition to reduce some of their outstanding contracts. Bulls, however, was restored almost wholly in the active specialties.

New York, Sept. 21.—Outside buying was partly responsible for today's rise.

counties already there it will be necessary for the people of the county to buy $142,317 more stamps. Licking county is $142,317 short of the quota. Twenty Ohio counties are about to complete their quota.

This week's sales amounted to $21, 214. The total bank sales for the week were $11,353 and the post office sales $881.

Two of the counties adjoining Lick-

The Kaiser As I Knew Him
For Fourteen Years
By ARTHUR N. DAVIS, D. D. S.

(Copyright, 1918, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

"Instead of discussing principles, your political candidates exchange personalities," he said. "My people would be shocked at the sort of speeches and accusations which figure in all your political campaigns. Over here, nothing of the kind is ever heard."

The Kaiser was very much interested in our negro problem. It seemed to have a great fascination for him, and he frequently referred to it. He told me that he understood there were 15,000,000 negroes in this country, but they were dying off in great numbers through consumption and other causes to which they offered but poor resistance.

"The negro will always be a great problem in your country, however," he added. "They don't mix socially with the whites, and there will be constant friction. My brother (Prince Henry), when he returned from his visit to America, told me a lot about these negroes. Indeed, one of the most impressive things he heard there was a choir of negro voices. He said they sang some wonderful melodies, and their voices were as clear as bells."

After the war started, the Kaiser referred to the negroes again. "Now is your chance to settle your negro problem," he declared, half facetiously, of course. "If America insists upon coming into the war, why doesn't she send her negroes across and let us shoot them down?"

When a fleet of our battleships visited Kiel some six years ago the Kaiser paid them a visit and was very much interested. When he called to see me shortly afterward he told me of his experience.

"I went over the ships from top to bottom," he declared. "They are excellent vessels, every one of them, and I was very much impressed with the way they are manned and officered. I have only one criticism—the lattice-work conning towers, or fighting masts. The only possible use I can see in them would be to train vines on them and install an elevator inside, and serve tea in the afternoon to the ladies on top—the most beautiful place for serving afternoon tea I can imagine."

"But, seriously speaking," he went on, "I can't see that these masts have any practical value. On the contrary, I can see very serious disadvantages in them. No matter what nation you might be fighting, your enemy would always be able to recognize you at a distance, before you could identify him, because the warships of all other nations look very much alike at a distance."

"They say these conning towers are armed," he went on, "but you would never get close enough to your enemy to use such small guns. Again, if one of those masts were hit it would send a shower of steel about the heads of the men on board, and would not only put many of them out of action, but it would be in the way. Suppose, too, the mast were struck down and hung over the side? It would drag through the water, and would not only seriously impede the vessel, but it would cause the ship to list and expose a larger area on one side than would be safe. No, Davis, your fighting masts, as I have said, might answer first-rate for serving tea, but I don't think much of them for active service."

But if the Kaiser saw much in American ways and customs to condemn, he likewise saw much to commend, and, before the war, he was liberal in his praise of many of our qualities and achievements.

He was very much interested, for instance, in the experiments and discoveries of Luther Burbank. To make Germany self-supporting as far as food resources were concerned was one of his dearest ambitions. He realized that in the event of a world war his people would probably suffer more from lack of food than they would from hostile bullets, and he was hoping that he would be able to obviate that condition before his country was put to the test. He was constantly preaching simplified diet and the conservation of food reserves, and he had great hopes that much could be done in a scientific way to help solve general food problems. When attending dinners given him by his officers, his wishes respecting simple menus were always carefully followed.

The Kaiser enjoyed American humor. He was very fond of Mark Twain, and he followed one or two of the American monthlies and weeklies more or less regularly. He told me that, one evening while in his sitting room in the Berlin palace, reading something in an American magazine, he ran across a story which caused him to laugh so much and so loud that the ladies of the court, who heard him in an adjacent room, came running in with their knitting to see what the matter was.

The Kaiser had little respect for our architecture. He thought our skyscrapers, of which he had seen illustrations, were hideous.

"How terrible to desecrate the landscape with such tall buildings," he commented. "They hurt the eye. How can people live in them?"

I explained that most of the buildings to which he referred were office buildings, but that we did have fourteen and fifteen-story apartment houses and hotels, and even higher ones, in which the upper floors were used for living purposes just the same as the lower ones. He couldn't believe it possible that people would consent to live so far above the ground, and from his own aversion to visit a place that was even one story above the ground floor, I rather got the idea that he was afraid of height. Under the building laws prevailing in Germany no building of more than five stories may be erected.

Perhaps the quality that he envied most in us was our inventive genius.
When Orville Wright was flying at Tempelhofen field, in Berlin, in the early days of aviation, the Kaiser could not restrain his admiration.

"I wish I could encourage my people to become great inventors, such as America has produced," he declared, rather hopelessly. "I admire your wonderful inventive genius."

The Kaiser objected very much to the fact that many of the foreign opera singers were attracted to New York by reason of the fabulous sums paid in the Metropolitan opera house.

Despite the fact that the Kaiser accused us of spending our money too lavishly, he repeatedly charged the English as well as ourselves with being money-worshippers.

"The Anglo-Saxons worship mammon, and they try to gloss it all over with a show of religion," he said.
"Your rich Americans have so much money, Davis, that they really don't know what to do with it. Why, recently one of your millionaires sent my castle at Corfu and sent one of his representatives to the court with the presumptuous message, 'Please tell the Kaiser that I will buy his castle at Corfu, and ask him what his price is.'
I had word sent back that the castle was not for sale. The American then told my representative that he wouldn't take 'no' for an answer. The cheek of the man! He said he didn't care how much it cost. I sent word back to that man that there were not enough dollars in the world to buy that castle.
There are some things that your dollars won't buy, Davis, and one of them is my beautiful castle at Corfu!"

CHAPTER XV.

The German People.
The oath of allegiance which every German soldier and public official takes binds him first to support the Kaiser, with his life and his money, and then the fatherland.

That is what the Kaiser referred to when he said, in the course of an address to a body of recruits at Potsdam:

"Body and soul you belong to me.
If I command you to shoot your fathers and your mothers . . . you must follow my command without a murmur."

It was customary for classes of school children to be taken to the Tiergarten from time to time to study the groups of statues of the Kaiser's ancestors in the Sieges Allee. They usually passed my house on their way to their object-lesson in patriotism. Sometimes, when the Kaiser was at my house, I have seen these children halt in front of the place to await the emperor's departure, their teachers, no doubt, feeling that the youngsters would gain greater inspiration from a fleeting glimpse of the living monarch than they could possibly derive from a prolonged study of the statues of his departed ancestors.

Most of my patients knew that the Kaiser visited me, and they never tired of asking questions about him. It was almost impossible for them to believe that they were to have the privilege of sitting in the very chair which their Kaiser had occupied.

"Does the Kaiser actually sit in this very chair?" they would ask in incredulous tones. "Does he ever talk about anything? Please tell me what he said the last time he was here."

A new German office girl whom I had engaged attracted the Kaiser's attention, and he was gracious enough to shake hands with her. After he had left the girl held out the hand the Kaiser had grasped and said she wouldn't wash it for a week!

"Just to think, this hand has grasped the Kaiser's hand! When I tell my family about it tonight they won't believe it!"

The fact that the Kaiser condescended to acknowledge the plaudits of his people by a salute or a wave of the hand was cited as proof of his gratuitousness and kindness; their god was smiling on them, and their gratification was overwhelming.

To maintain this state of veneration was one of the Kaiser's principal concerns. That was why he never appeared in public except in full uniform; why he always rode a white horse, while the rest of his staff rode dark ones; why the pictures of him that were allowed to be circulated always showed him to the very best advantage; why every case of lese majeste was punished with the utmost severity; why, in short, every possible precaution was taken that the exalted ideas which the public held regarding their Kaiser should never be undermined.

With this spirit of devotion dominating the people generally, it was only to be expected that they should have stood solidly behind their emperor when he sought to achieve the one ambition of his life—his dream of world dominion.

There is no doubt that the war was planned and made possible by the militarists and the junkers, and that every effort was made to conceal from the people its real purpose and ultimate goal; but if anyone imagines that the people at large would have held back had they realized the truth, he fails to understand the underlying spirit of the Teutonic race.

The Germans are the most quarrelsome people in the world. It is misleading to speak of the German militarists. All Germans are militarists.
The records of their civil courts tell the story. In 1913 there were no less than 5,000,000 petty cases tried in the courts, and as every case naturally involved at least two parties, the astonishing fact is disclosed that some 10, 000,000 Germans, or one-seventh of the entire population, appealed to the courts in a single year!

The bellicose character of the people was evidenced in countless other ways.
It was the natural result of what I believe to be the most pronounced national shortcoming—selfishness. The average German is the most selfish individual in the world. He thinks of himself and his own comfort first, last and all the time. I have noticed it on the street cars, in the theaters, in the public highways, in the restaurants and hotels, where people congregate.

Every one looked out for himself first and pushed aside those who stood in his way. In civil life, just as in a state of war, the German practiced the principle that might makes right.

Chivalry, courtesy, magnanimity are as foreign to the German makeup as they are characteristics of the French.
A keen desire to make something out of nothing is another national trait of the Germans. If my observation has been accurate. What is commonly referred to as German thrift is only a polite name for German stinginess, and I have seen so many illustrations of the petty meanness of the German people that it seems idle to specify single instances.

One of the first impressions I received about the German people, when I went to live among them fourteen years ago, was the lack of comradeship among them. Class distinctions are drawn so fine, and there are so many gradations, that it was almost impossible to find two Germans on the same social plane. One was always the other's superior. After my fourteen years' experience among these people, I cannot say that that early impression has been removed; if anything, it has been deepened.

Anyone who has lived in Berlin, and is familiar with conditions in other European capitals, will bear me out that the German policeman is the most arrogant police official in the world.
His word is taken in court in preference to that of six civilians, and his power is such that it might very easily be used oppressively; but strangely enough, despite the cupidity of the German character, graft and corruption among the German police and other officials were practically unknown before the war.

Such were the people behind the Kaiser when the great war started. I shall never forget the sentiments expressed to me by private individuals in every walk of life as the various phases of the war developed.

No measure that was taken by Germany, no matter how atrocious or inconsistent with the world's idea of what is permissible in civilized warfare, ever brought a word of condemnation from the German public as a whole, although, of course, there were some notable exceptions. The great majority of Germans who discussed these matters with me, however, not only defended everything Germany did, but complained because more rigorous measures were not taken.

Merely by way of example, and not because her suggestion was any worse than hundreds of others raised by my German patients, I may mention the surprising viewpoint expressed by the Countess Sierstorff, a relative of Von Henckel-Donnersmarck. It was after Italy had joined the allies and when German resentment against that nation ran very high.

"What we should do at the very first able opportunity," she declared, "to destroy every single work of art in Italy. Not a single one of their landmarks or art treasures should be left standing. Then when the war is over and Italy no longer derives the enormous revenue she has been collecting for years from tourists, she will be sorry for what she has done to Germany!"

Did the German people countenance the submarine warfare and the slaughter of innocent women and children, in defiance of all rules of international law and the dictates of common humanity? They had only one criticism to make of it—it was not comprehensible enough! It was absolutely folly, if not a crime, they said, for Germany to prescribe safety lanes for neutral vessels to use. The whole world should have been declared a war zone, that death and destruction might be dealt wherever and whenever the opportunity offered. Every ship that sailed should be sunk, and every American who ventured within range of a German gun, on sea or land, should be shot. That was the universal sentiment.

The suggestion that a continuation of the submarine warfare would inevitably bring America into the war did not perturb the people in the slightest.

"How can America do us more harm than she is now doing?" they asked.
"American bullets are shooting down our men, American food is sustaining our enemies. American dollars are working against us in every possible way. Let America come into the war and give us a chance to pay her back for what she has done to us. She couldn't harm us any more if she were a belligerent. Why allow her to remain neutral and go unscathed?"

The jubilation which the news of the sinking of the Lusitania was received by the German people was general. It was so significant that I believe America would have declared war immediately had it been known. I have failed to find a single German who did not exult over the dastardly crime, and the activity of the Zeppells in their raids on open towns evoked similar demonstrations.

That the views which the people held regarding the conduct of the war were strongly influenced by the public press, which was absolutely controlled by the government, was only to be expected. The fact that in peace time the press of Germany was perhaps the most reliable in the world, made of it a particularly valuable tool in the hands of the government in time of war.

There Is No Question

But that all lines of wearing apparel will be higher priced later on. In fact, manufacturers are now quoting 10 to 50 per cent higher prices than we paid for present stocks. Then the proposed luxury tax will greatly enhance prices in practically all lines. The Government requests you to anticipate your needs and buy early. Economy is the watchword of the nation, and there is no greater opportunity to economize than by buying at present prices.

3,000 TURKS ARE TAKEN PRISONERS

British and French Renew Activities in Holyland—Sultan's Troops Flee.

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.) Turkish forces along the line from the Mediterranean sea to the Jordan, north of Jerusalem, appear to have suffered a serious defeat at the hands of the British and French armies and their allies, the Arabs. If the situation develops as favorably to the allies as it is indicated by the reports of the opening phases of the fighting, the Sultan's forces may suffer disaster. Attacking over a front 16 miles in length, the allies have virtually overrun the whole Turkish defensive system along the Mediterranean sea coast. Railroad junctions have been taken and cavalry is operating in the rear of Turkish forces which are holding the line to the eastward of the front where the attack is launched. These enemy units are prevented from retreating eastward by the hostility of Bedouin tribes beyond the front line, and a serious problem in making their way back to safety along the western bank of that historic stream.

More than 3,000 prisoners have been captured by the allies and the British taken great quantities of war materials. British, French and Serbian and Greek forces are pursuing their successes in the theatre of the war. Polishko, a town 19 miles east of Prilep, has been reached by the French, while the Serbians have crossed the Cerro and are in the neighborhood of the town of Durnovo, south of Prilep. Further east the British and Greeks are forcing the Bulgarians back in the Lake Dolan region, in spite of the violent resistance of the enemy.

Along the battle line in France the British are still hammering away at Hindenburg line north of St. Quentin and have made gains of considerable importance. This region is one great fortress and progress must of necessity be slow. The success of the British, especially that of the Australian units, gives reason for the belief expressed in dispatches that the German line north of St. Quentin may be broken by the allied onslaught. South of St. Quentin the French are fighting relentlessly and are making progress in the region of Essegny-LeGrand. Fighting along the American front in Lorraine has been of a minor nature since the Germans were forced back to their lines before Metz.

Allied forces in Russia have routed the Bolshevik army on the northern front. Petrograd dispatches state that the Bolshevik retreat was caused by the treachery of Lettish regiments, which refused to fight against the British.

There is a belief in official circles in Washington that a new allied stroke may be launched soon somewhere along the front in France. The plans of Marshal Foch are not known but it is intimated in dispatches from the capital that an attack from Rheims to Verdun would cause little surprise. Such a move would probably be the first step in the final offensive against the Germans to loosen their grip north of the Aisne and also weaken their hold on the region northwest of Metz.

THE MEN IN CLASS A

A sound, healthy man is never a back number. A man can be as vigorous and able at twenty as at thirty. Condition, not years, puts you in the discard. A system weakened by overwork and careless living brings old age prematurely. The bodily functions are impaired and unpleasant symptoms appear. The weak spot is generally the kidneys. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you will generally find yourself in Class A. Take GOLD MEDAL Haarm Oil Capsules periodically and your system will always be in working order. Your spirits will be invigorated, your muscles supple, your mind active, and your body capable of hard work.

Don't wait until you have been rejected. Commence to be a first-class man now. Go to your druggist at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haarm Oil Capsules. They are made of the pure, original, imported Haarm Oil—the kind your great-grandfather used. Two capsules each day will keep you toned and feeling fine. Money refunded if they do not help you. Remember to ask for the imported GOLD MEDAL Brand. In three sizes, sealed packages. (Adv.)

AMUSEMENTS

GRAND.
Sunday and Monday.

Well did Kipling sing, "The Female Male," for there is no fathomless depths of a cunning and unscrupulous woman, gifted with intuition and daring, and intent on accumulating wealth or obtaining social position. "The Love Hookers" portrays with breathless interest and amazing complications the efforts of a scheming woman to obtain control of a huge fortune by using a beautiful girl in unfortunate circumstances as a tool. That fascinating hunt of artists, writers, poets and savants of American life, Bryant Park, The Beaux Arts section, is the locale of the story, and its types are depicted with truth and force.

LYRIC.
Sunday.

At the Lyric tomorrow Hal Holt's Americans will give a Sunday concert with such well known artists as The LeClonts, banjo experts, and the famous Musical Walkers, who will play all new music for this concert and many new songs are to be sung, and the American Serial Supreme, "The Eagle's Eye," written by William J. Flynn, recently retired chief of the U. S. Secret Service, with those ever popular screen stars, King Baggot and Marguerite Clark.

Continuing next week, Al Coleman's Tip-Top Merry-makers, featuring those two funny men, Al Lemons and Lew Orth in new and up-to-the-minute musical comedies, assisted by a company of comedians, singers and dancers and a bunch of pretty girls.

ALHAMBRA.
Sunday and Monday.

The immediate success in Goldwyn's "Thais," in which she made her debut in motion pictures, is her appearance in a second Goldwyn production. Persuading to essay another role being returned to the operatic stage, the great diva elects to portray a woman of today, created expressly by Kate Jordan for the further display of Mary Garden's extraordinary gifts as an actress in the silent drama. This result is "The Splendid Sinner," said to be fully representative of the Goldwyn standard in modern production and to touch a new height in story-telling as well. It is in this powerful play of today that Mary Garden is presented at the Alhambra theatre Sunday and Monday.

When the matter of a second appearance in the days when men went mad in their greedy rush for gold, when they fought and killed and forgot the laws of God and man that they might be the first to the fields of gleaming gold, and so it is that in "The Great White Trail," Leopold D. Wharton's master photo-drama of the Arctic, the great grandchildren of those faithful dogs of the north, are shown the parts that their forebears played.

GEM.
Sunday.

"Huskies," someone named them, availed in the days when men went mad in their greedy rush for gold, when they fought and killed and forgot the laws of God and man that they might be the first to the fields of gleaming gold, and so it is that in "The Great White Trail," Leopold D. Wharton's master photo-drama of the Arctic, the great grandchildren of those faithful dogs of the north, are shown the parts that their forebears played.

AUDITORIUM.
"Tarzan of the Apes."

Full of wild beasts of the African jungle, ramped over the screen yesterday again at the motion picture presentation of Edgar Rice Burroughs' "Tarzan of the Apes," at the Auditorium theatre. Its chief claim to attention is the realistic magnificence of its scenery, which is said to have cost $300,000 to prepare—although there is also a mystery story of the English family in search of their long-lost son, Gordon Griffith, who played the boy, almost suggests that evolution had raced backward several dozen centuries as he flung himself from branch to branch. The illusion was heightened by the lions, elephants, and the many varieties of animal and monkey that wandered in upon the scene.

Large crowds have flocked to this popular playhouse and no doubt capacity houses will see the last showings tonight.

"Modern Love."

With a cast of players, the most important being Mae Murray, George S. O'Brien, Charles Du Brey, P. McCullough, Miss Murray tomorrow will be screened at the Auditorium in her latest Universal feature, "Modern Love."

Artists and their models, with stage folk brought in, make most interesting and fascinating subjects for a vast majority of theatregoers who like to see things as they are back of the curtain line. In this photoplay, the studio atmosphere of the back stage sets, are really true to life and with true Mae Murray pathos, is sure to please Sunday amusement seekers. For comedy seekers, the hit of several weeks ago, "She Loves Him Plenty," in which Ben Turpin, the man with those funny eyes, Charles Lynn, Polly Moran and Ed Kennedy sure will hand out many laughs. The Hearst-Pathe News, with its world-wide events, some being scenes connected with the Navy Boys at Polham Bay, N. C. Quantico, Va., where the Marines train. Scenes connected with Our Colored Boys in training camps somewhere in the East. The orchestra, always good, will render another select musical program. The soloists, Mr. Nutter, Mr. Hawkins, Mr. Aucher are to play special numbers. None should miss the unusually exceptional Sunday program.

"She Loves Him Plenty."

One of the finest comedies turned out by Paramount-Mack-Sennett in many months "She Loves Him Plenty," which will be presented at the Auditorium theatre Sunday. The story deals with a woman pawn broker and her two clerks, one of whom she loves. A beautiful rival is thrust into her Eden by a rascally gypsy and trouble follows. This comedy is a return engagement.
